

CURRICULUM VITAE (October 16, 2006)

A. NAME: with rank, status (tenured, contract, etc.).

John N. Davis, Associate Professor (tenured)

B. DEGREES: designation, institution, department, year.

M.L.S. (University of Western Ontario, 1981)

Barrister (Law Society of Upper Canada, 1979)

J.D. (University of Toronto, 1977)

C. EMPLOYMENT HISTORY: dates, rank/position, department, institution/firm, including current full-time position and link to the program under review.

2000 to present, Associate Professor, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University

2000 to 2005, Law Librarian, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University

1987 to 2000, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Victoria

1987 to 2000, Law Librarian, Faculty of Law, University of Victoria

1981 to 1987, Reference Librarian, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba

D. ACADEMIC HONOURS: such as F.R.S., F.R.S.C., Governor General's Award, honorary degrees, or equivalent.

E. SCHOLARLY and PROFESSIONAL ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES: past 7 years only (e.g., executive and editorial positions but not memberships; invited presentations at national or international conferences. Please do not list manuscript and grant application reviews).

- Walter Owen Book Prize Selection Committee
Secretary, for the 1999, 2001, 2003 and 2005 awards.
Under the auspices of the Foundation for Legal Research, this committee makes a $10,000 award each year to the author of a book about Canadian law (English and French languages in alternating years.)
- "Getting Lawyers Onside and Online: Strategies for Promoting End-User Research" presented June 1, 1999 at the Annual Conference, Canadian Association of Law Libraries, Banff, Alberta. I was one of a panel of four presenters on this topic, and gave an academic perspective.
- "Comments on CCH Canadian Ltd. v. Law Society of Upper Canada" presented May 28, 2000 at the Annual Conference, Canadian Association of Law Libraries, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. This was an important case, recently decided, on copyright and photocopying in libraries.
- Scholarships and Awards Committee, Canadian Association of Law Libraries
Member, May 2001 to May 2005.
Chair, September 2004 to May 2005.
This committee selected recipients of the Diana M. Priestly Memorial Scholarship, the Denis S. Marshall Award for Excellence in Law Librarianship, the James D. Lang Memorial Scholarship, and an assortment of other grants, awards and opportunities.
- Presentation as one member of a panel speaking on the topic: "Regional US/Canada Legal Education--A Review of Comparative Programs", at the Great Lakes Colloquium on Training and Development for Foreign, Comparative, and International Law Librarianship", University at Buffalo, November 19, 2004.

- F. GRADUATE SUPERVISIONS: career numbers - master's/doctoral; completed/in progress. Please distinguish between supervision, co-supervision and supervisory committee membership and distinguish between supervisions in the program under review and in other programs, if appropriate.

If possible, provide a list of the theses or projects supervised (not participation on supervisory committees) during the last seven years with name of student, title of thesis or project (specify), date of first registration and date of completion.

- G. GRADUATE COURSES: past 7 years, by year.

- H. EXTERNAL RESEARCH FUNDING: past 7 years only, by year, indicating source (granting councils, industry, government, foundations, other external); amount; purpose (operating, travel, publication, equipment, etc.); if group grant, indicate the number of grantees and whether principal or co-applicant.

- I. INTERNAL RESEARCH FUNDING. This includes university funds, SSHRC minor grants awarded through the university, etc.

- J. PUBLICATIONS:

- i. Life-time summary (count) according to the following categories:

1. Scholarly books – authored	1
2. Scholarly books – edited	0
3. Chapters in books	0
4. Papers in refereed journals	0
5. Papers in refereed conference proceedings	0
6. Major invited contributions and/or technical reports	0
7. Abstracts and/or papers read	0
8. Others (e.g., workshops presented, other types of publications)	38

- ii. Details for the past 7 years (same categories as above), in chronological order. Please give full citation, including page numbers for books, chapters and journal articles and names of authors in the order in which they appear on the publication.

1. Scholarly books – authored

- Douglass T. MacEllven, Michael J. McGuire, Neil A. Campbell and John N. Davis, Legal Research Handbook, 5th ed. (Markham: LexisNexis Butterworths, 2003).

2. Scholarly books - edited

3. Chapters in books

4. Papers in refereed journals

5. Papers in refereed conference proceedings

6. Major invited contributions and/or technical reports

7. Abstracts and/or papers read

8. Others (e.g., workshops presented, other types of publications)

- John N. Davis, "An Introduction to Canadian History for Law Librarians" presented May 22, 2002 at the Joint Study Institute, Annual Conference, Canadian Association of Law Libraries, Victoria, British Columbia. The talk was accompanied by a very substantial handout, which included "Significant (and Insignificant) Dates in Canadian History". The Joint Study Institutes, held every other year, are sponsored jointly by the American Association of Law Libraries, the British & Irish Association of Law Libraries, the Canadian Association of Law Libraries, the Australian Law Librarians Group, and the New Zealand Librarians Group, for the continuing education of their members.

- John N. Davis, "Liability of Information Professionals", TALL Newsletter, vol. 22, no. 3/4, pp. 1,4-13 (August 2003). Versions of this paper were also presented on April 2, 2003 to the Toronto Chapter of the Canadian Association of Special Libraries and Information Services (CASLIS), on May 8, 2003 to the Toronto Association of Law Libraries (TALL), and October 23, 2003 (in Burlington) to the Conference for Ontario Law Associations' Libraries.
- John N. Davis, "Notes on Canadian Legislation", presented as one member of a panel speaking on the topic: "Do They Shepardize in Canada? An Essential Introduction to Canadian Legal Research for U.S. Law Professors and Law Librarians", at the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Law Schools in San Francisco, January 8, 2005. For the handout, follow the link at: <http://www.aals.org/am2005/saturdaypapers/index.html>
- John Davis, "Legal Research Judicially Considered", TALL Newsletter, vol. 25, no. 4, pp. 1,5-14 (Summer 2006).