OUR INNOVATIVE CURRICULUM

WE CHALLENGE THE TRADITIONAL CURRICULUM BY OFFERING A RICH, INNOVATIVE AND INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAM THAT EXPOSES OUR STUDENTS TO A BROAD ARRAY OF PERSPECTIVES AND EXPERIENCES.

Our courses are taught by respected full-time faculty, adjunct professors and legal practitioners, with a full range of viewpoints. We invite esteemed faculty from around the globe to visit and share their expertise, and we encourage our students to consider studying abroad to gain their own first-hand experience in other parts of the world.

We aim for excellence at all levels through a comprehensive, well-rounded education focused on law in action, from our foundational first-year curriculum to the unparalleled breadth and depth of our upper-year courses and seminars. In addition to ethics and professionalism, we stress the importance of developing legal writing skills as integral to the practice of law. OUR CUTTING EDGE RESEARCH & CENTRES

EXPLORING LAW IN ACTION REQUIRES NOT ONLY AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE HISTORY OF LAW AND HOW IT WAS SHAPED, BUT ALSO A CONSTANT EXAMINATION OF ITS EVOLUTION AND A CLEAR VISION FOR ITS FUTURE.

Osgoode has a proud tradition of leadership in research.

We are home to several important research centres and institutions where we pursue knowledge in action in order to remain at the forefront of legal thought, study and practice. These centres and institutes generate constant innovation – they attract visiting scholars and fellows, organize conferences, disseminate papers, host blogs and serve as catalysts for all of Osgoode’s research activities, including student research projects.

In addition to the benefits of having all the centres and institutes within Osgoode and York at their disposal, faculty and students alike can take advantage of the Law School’s strong ties with external bodies, such as the Law Commission of Ontario, which is housed at Osgoode.

CENTRES AND INSTITUTES
· Critical Research Laboratory in Law and Society
· Jay and Barbara Hennick Centre for Business and Law
· IP Osgoode
· Institute for Feminist Legal Studies

OUR RENOWNED FACULTY

WE BELIEVE THAT THE TRANSFORMATION FROM GREAT STUDENT INTO GREAT LEADER BEGINS WITH GREAT LEADERSHIP.

We have drawn together the country’s top legal thinkers, from our full-time professors to our part-time faculty of practicing lawyers and judges from the Greater Toronto Area. These exceptional instructors contribute to the diversity and pluralism of the learning experience at Osgoode, and foster excellence in every facet of what they do.

Our faculty are thoughtful, passionate, and engaged in the issues and realities of the world around them. They are internationally renowned. They have ambitious research agendas, and their work has been cited by courts, in policy papers, and in the mainstream media. And although they bring with them a wide array of experience, perspectives, teaching approaches and evaluation methods, our faculty are united in their supportive, open-door approach.

Our faculty are first in their fields. And they put our students first.

“It really was being exposed to the wonderful minds at Osgoode...that really opened up my imagination.”

Our experiential approach to legal education doesn’t just benefit students during their time here at Osgoode. It allows them to leave our institution fully prepared to pursue the future they’ve always envisioned for themselves, in all areas of professional and public life. At every step of the way, we assist our students in defining and achieving their short- and long-term career goals through:

- Individual career counselling
- Résumé review
- Mock interviews
- On-campus interview programs
- Career fairs
- Programs and information sessions on various career paths
- An online job database

Most importantly, we give our students a wide range of opportunities to network with our widely respected alumni. Through career panels and mentorship programs, students can learn first-hand from professionals who are successfully practicing in all areas of law across Canada and internationally, as well as pursuing a variety of non-traditional career paths.

Osgoode is also committed to ensuring our students are fully qualified for entry into the lawyer licensing process. Our JD degree requirements comply with the Federation of Law Societies’ uniform national requirement for entry to the lawyer licensing programs across all common law jurisdictions in Canada.
engaging the community

OUR PARTNERSHIPS AND INTERNSHIPS

At Osgoode, we go beyond the classroom walls to apply what we learn and teach in its actual context. We immerse ourselves in the communities that surround us – both in our backyard and across the globe – to enrich the individual experience and make a positive difference.

This invaluable dimension of the Osgoode experience is brought to life through collaborations with external partners, and through student-initiated summer internship opportunities, funded by the law school.

PUBLIC INTEREST EXPERIENCES

- Osgoode Public Interest Requirement (OPIR), a graduation requirement that each Osgoode student complete 40 hours of unpaid legal work in the public interest
- Pro Bono Students Canada, in which students volunteer their time to support projects and organizations dedicated to access to justice and law reform
- Law in Action Within Schools (LAWS), a partnership with the Toronto District School Board and the University of Toronto’s Faculty of Law

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS

- ILP – International Legal Partnerships
- Ian Scott Public Interest Internships
- McCarthy Tétrault Business Law Internships
- John Plater Health Law Internship and the James Kreppner Health Law Internship
- Victor Internships in Environmental Law
- Michael Mandel Peace Internship
- CAMH Corporate Internship
- Eric and Edna Lisus Social Justice Internship

By engaging with and exploring the real-world settings in which law resides, our students and faculty enjoy an enriched learning experience, as well as the unparalleled opportunity to envisage new approaches to legal education and research opportunities that prepare them for practice.

“I came to this city to go to Osgoode. By doing the Parkdale program... (you) engage with the community that you’re in... It bridged me to working in the Aboriginal community and working in the legal aid system.”

OUR CAMPUS LIFE

PART OF PROVIDING OUR STUDENTS WITH AN EXPERIENCE UNLIKE ANY OTHER IS CREATING AN ATMOSPHERE THAT NURTURES AND SUPPORTS ALL ASPECTS OF THEIR TIME AT OSGOODE – BOTH INTELLECTUALLY AND PERSONALLY.

THE IGNA'I KANEFF BUILDING
Our commitment to experiential excellence is reflected in the thoughtfully designed classroom, reading, study, presentation and social spaces of our recently renovated and re-imagined Ignat Kaneff Building. It is a state-of-the-art, student-focused facility featuring a student lounge, a Reflection Room for prayer and quiet meditation and a Family Room for students with young children.

Osgoode is a leader in the development and use of technology in teaching, learning and researching the law. Our innovative electronic classrooms make use of leading-edge technology to create "global classrooms", allowing us to engage and interact with communities and legal education professionals worldwide.

THE LAW LIBRARY
The Ignat Kaneff Building is also home to the Osgoode Law Library, which is one of the largest and finest anywhere. In addition to its impressive collection of more than 500,000 volumes and a wide range of digital and online resources, the library is staffed with experienced and supportive librarians, and equipped with quiet, accessible spaces that are perfect for individual and group study.

In the fall of 2014, the Osgoode Digital Commons, an open-access institutional repository, was officially launched. The Commons captures, preserves and makes available to the global public the intellectual output of the Law School, including faculty research, scholarship and publications; journals and research centres; selected records and archives; and digital initiatives from the Osgoode Hall Law School Library.

STUDENT LIFE AND OSGOODE CHAMBERS
Our impressive size allows for an extraordinary number and variety of extra-curricular clubs, organizations and activities, so students can tailor their experience at Osgoode to match their individual interests. Many of our students live in Osgoode Chambers, which offers comfortable, convenient and affordable on-campus housing dedicated especially to Osgoode students. This provides a strong base for participation in the life of the Law School.

LOCATION
On top of all the outstanding amenities and services York and Osgoode provide on-campus, our vibrant Osgoode community is conveniently located within the Greater Toronto Area, one of Canada’s largest metropolitan, multicultural cities. This gives students the added advantage of living in and studying law in the country’s largest legal market.

STUDENT SUCCESS AND WELLNESS PROGRAM
Understanding that a student’s initial year with us is a pivotal one, we offer academic success programs targeted to first-year students through the Office of the Associate Dean (Students). Additional academic success and support programs and services are available to upper-year students as well.

We also understand the important relationship between academic success and personal wellness. The Student Success and Wellness Program, the first of its kind at a Canadian law school, is designed to be an accessible, safe, and confidential support service for individual students and is committed to furthering institutional wellness and inclusivity at Osgoode.

Our Student Success and Wellness Counsellor, an experienced professional in both law and counselling, helps students develop and fulfill their personal and academic potential through advising, counselling, resources, referrals, and crises intervention services.
"Osgoode is offering the newest and most modern law school building that there is. This new facility is quite spectacular and unrivalled."

OUR ADMISSIONS & FINANCIAL SUPPORT

OSGOODE IS ONE OF NORTH AMERICA’S MOST PRESTIGIOUS LAW SCHOOLS, AND AS SUCH, ATTRACTS AN IMPRESSIVE POOL OF APPLICANTS EACH YEAR.

Typically, we receive around 2,500 to 3,000 applications for only 290 spots, so our academic requirements are understandably stringent. That being said, we do espouse a holistic admissions policy and process that recognize, foster and celebrate equity as well as excellence.

It goes without saying that we consider academic and LSAT results. However, we also look at non-academic qualities such as work experience, extracurricular activities, community involvement and personal considerations. Additionally, we take into consideration the barriers that social inequality can create between students with demonstrated capacity and a legal education. This is why we continue to place a priority on opening our doors to communities that traditionally have been under-represented in the legal profession.

We offer a wide range of financial support, including entrance and upper-year scholarships and awards, bursaries, medals and prizes, and social justice funding. We have also established, and regularly update, an External Funding Database which provides information about a wide range of externally funded awards. Our Financial Services Office is always available to provide friendly and helpful guidance on accessing OSAP and student lines of credit, budgeting, and individual financial concerns.

Osgoode is committed to supporting access to legal education, and, to that end, has recently established the innovative Income Contingent Loan Program (ICLP) that provides bursary and loan funding for the cost of tuition. For 2016, we will select five eligible students to participate in the ICLP. The recipients will not pay tuition while they are law students, but will agree to repay the entirety of their loan after graduation over a 10-year period. The loan repayment for those years may be forgiven in whole or in part based on the participant’s income level in any of the years of the repayment period. To learn more about the ICLP, and the other scholarships, awards and bursaries available to Osgoode students, please visit www.osgoode.yorku.ca/resources-and-services/financial-services.

In order to be considered for entrance scholarships and/or awards, as well as for the Early Bursary Notification Program (which provides an early indication of whether students are likely to receive bursary funding once at Osgoode), applicants MUST complete the Online Financial Statement form as part of their admissions application.

To be a part of the unique Osgoode experience or to learn more, visit us at www.osgoode.yorku.ca or contact admissions@osgoode.yorku.ca today.

· Achievements
· Varied life/non-academic experience
· Sustained engagement
· Continuing social and intellectual engagement
· Overcoming adversity and systemic barriers
· Written and oral communication

Note: No formula or weighting is used

Decisions are made on a rolling basis starting in December and continuing to the end of June. As such, we encourage applicants to take the LSAT before the February test date. In addition, the February LSAT score will not be considered for ICLP applicants. Applicants should note that decisions may be made before final transcripts are issued. A wait pool is established in May/June.

Although admission decisions are made on the basis of a holistic assessment of the entire file (in line with the objectives of Osgoode’s Admissions Policy), successful applicants generally have an “A-” average and an LSAT in the 80th percentile, or better. Significantly stronger results either on the LSAT or the GPA may compensate for a less competitive LSAT or GPA.

The above are for consideration only, and not a guarantee of admission.

Advising appointments are available in the fall prior to the November 1st application deadline.
FIRST YEAR JD PROGRAM
In their first year with us, students take seven mandatory courses and one elective. The course format varies – some are taught over a full year, others in a single semester, and others in short, intensive periods. They are taught in large and small group settings, in which active participation and collaboration are not just encouraged but expected. The first-year class is divided into four sections of about 75 students each. In some courses, students are further divided into smaller clusters of 20 to 25 students, for “small group” meetings with the instructor. Students can expect to do substantial amounts of small group work in at least four of their courses.
