

ONTARIO'S ENVIRONMENTAL BILL OF RIGHTS: A TOOLKIT FOR CHANGE

DIANNE SAXE

Environmental Commissioner of Ontario

September 19, 2016 | 3:30-4:30PM
Ignat Kaneff Building, Room 2003

Osgoode alum Dianne Saxe '74, '91 (LLM), '91 (PhD) is the Environmental Commissioner of Ontario (ECO), a tough but fair watchdog over Ontario's environmental, energy and climate performance, and guardian of the Environmental Bill of Rights, 1993 (EBR).

Prior to her appointment, Dianne was one of Canada's most respected environmental lawyers.

She has 40 years' unparalleled experience writing, interpreting, and litigating Ontario's energy and environmental laws. Dianne's career began with the Ontario Public Service and two major Bay Street law firms. She then established one of Canada's top environmental law boutiques.

All are invited to attend.
