

The Nathanson Centre on Transnational Human Rights, Crime and Security

presents

Law and Disorder

A symposium and tribute to Margaret Evelyn Beare

9.30- 1.30 Morning session: Symposium

Opening Keynote: Peter German: Financial Crime - Do We Care?

Policing People:

Anna Willats Policing and gender-based violence - lessons learned

Tonita Murray Are professional police the answer to cost effective socially conscious policing?'

Peter Manning The Quest for Police Accountability:

Policing Money

Sanaa Ahmed The political economy of money laundering in Canada

James Sheptycki Policing the Global Money System

Stephen Schneider Polluted Culture: Unethical & Unlawful Behavior by Large Complex Financial Institutions

Policing Corporations

Loreen Snider Capital, Corporations and Corruption

Craig Scott Structural Corruption After SNC Lavalin: Thoughts on the Political-Industrial Complex

Policing Networks

Stephen Wilks Cryptocurrency and the Contemporary Challenge of Governing Networks Within Networks

Alexandra Orlova Digital Sovereignty, Anonymity and Freedom of Expression: Russia's Fight to Re-Shape Internet Governance.

Elizabeth Kirley The Progressive Interdependence of Human and Algorithmic Sleuthing in Police Investigations

Afternoon Session: Tribute

2:00

Keynote: Philip Stenning: Margaret: Scholar, Friend and Bonne Vivante

2:30 – 3:30 PM:

Nathalie Des Rosiers (human rights)

John Sewell (community activism re policing)

Francois Tanguetz Renaud (Nathanson)

Mary Condon, Dean Osgoode

Dean, LA&PS, York U

3:45

Wine Toast and Informal Reception: Hosted by Nhai Nguyen Beare

(Arts and Letters Club, 14 Elm Street, two short blocks north of Dundas St. , just off Yonge St.